

The gray area below indicates where you may assemble your competition entries. You will be welcome to tour the existing structures in the Canyon during the competition, but we ask that you please respect the delicate nature of the canyon and leave it the way you found it. Thank you.

