A maximum of 10 teams or 60 participants per school. Please coordinate this with your school's advisors.

- The entry fee is $85.00 per individual, which includes seven meals, entertainment, lectures, facilities, Open House tours and events, and the Design Village conference t-shirt. Cancellations must be received no less than two weeks prior to the event. Cancellations received less than two weeks prior are subject to forfeiture of the entry fee.
- Registration forms postmarked after April 1, 2008, are subject to a $10.00 late fee, totaling $95.00 per individual.
- Checks payable to: Design Village. Entry fees must be received by April 8, 2009.
- Your registration will not be complete until you have received a confirmation email with your team number.
- Participants are required to have a valid proof of medical insurance and/or credit card to pay for services. Cal Poly has no medical services on campus, nor does the school take responsibility for any injuries during Design Village. Advising Professors must be in the San Luis Obispo area for the duration of the event.
- All participants must adhere to the rules and regulations of the Competition, The CAED, and all California State University policies and rules. Failure to comply will result in your team's disqualification from the event and any University Judicial actions. Please refer to the official competition rules on our website.
- The Competition is open to whoever is up to the challenge, especially students in areas of Architecture, Environmental Design, Construction, Engineering, Landscape Architecture, Planning, and other related fields.
- For further information, see <http://designvillage.calpoly.edu/> If you have any questions, email designvillage.calpoly@gmail.com or call the Architecture Department at (805) 756-1316.
